Report on Framing Questions

A one-day seminar on “Framing Questions” was conducted on 19th June 2019 for the First year B. Ed. students. Dr. M. Balasaraswathi, Assistant Professor in English Education was the resource person who dealt in an elaborate manner the open and closed ended questions. The various forms of constructing “wh” questions with examples were discussed. The morning session got ended up by practicing online exercises individually; thereby the students exposed themselves to different websites that tested their understanding.

The afternoon session was engaged by activity based learning. Students experienced unconscious learning through deductive game, ball game and “who am I” game. The whole day was found highly beneficial for the students in practising question formation while ensuring individual participation and evaluation.
