Mr. A. John Lawrence

Dr. M. Antony Raj

Dr. A. Punitha Mary

Mr. S. Arockiasamy

Dr. Sathesh Franklin

Mr. T. Thangaraj

The meeting began with a silent prayer. Rev. Dr. Amaladoss Xavier, S.J. welcomed the members present. The minutes of the previous Anti-Ragging Committee meeting was presented by Dr. M. Antony Raj and the same was approved by the members.

The members appreciated the prevailing condition in the college, as there was no ragging found in any form in the campus. But they expressed that this year as we have started co-education at B.Ed. level, the atmosphere may be very different. So the members collectively framed the action to be taken, if a student comes with a written or oral complaint against ragging inside the college campus.

Action to be taken, if a student is found guilty of ragging:

- a. Concerned student will be warned.
- b. If he/she is found guilty again, he should give written apology letter
- c. If he/she continuous to be guilty intimation will be given to parents.
- d. If the same student found guilty again, he/she will be suspended.

It was resolved to have a flex board at the entrance indicating that our college campus is a ragging free campus.

It was resolved to conduct slogan contest in view of college magazine regarding anti ragging. The selected best slogan should be uploaded in the college website.

It was resolved to conduct seminars on Human Rights awareness, Legal awareness, Gender sensitization, and personality development programs to develop the broad thinking and to motivate the students.

It was resolved to encourage students both boys and girls to participate in all academic and cultural programs in order to develop humanitarian approach and universal brotherhood amidst students.

It was resolved to conduct awareness programs through subject club activities.

The meeting came to an end at 04.10 p.m.
